Directions: Complete the following questions by choosing the best answer, filling in the blank, or providing a short answer.

“Kid at Camp” p.9 - 12

1. Which of the following ideas did Chad Foster present?
   a. Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose.
   b. Winning isn’t everything, but it’s a whole lot better than losing.
   c. When you lose you learn, when you learn you improve. When you improve you win more.
   d. All of the above.
   e. None of the above.

2. ___________ is a part of every journey.

3. Chad Foster wants you to see that there are many things you can do while you’re young that will make your road to success ________________
   ________________.

“The Music Man” p.13 - 15

1. Life without passion is ________________, ________________, and without ________________.

2. According to Webster, the definition of passion is, ________________.

3. What are two lessons that Chad Foster learned at tennis camp?
   a. the importance of meeting ________________
   b. things don’t ________________
4. What did Elton’s story help Chad Foster understand?

It’s important to have someone ______________________ when you think your life is ______________________ or when ________________________.
or even when _____________________________.

“The Meet of the Matter” p.17 - 22

1. Use one of the following signs to complete the comparison: <, >, =

What you know ________ Who you know

2. What skills, according to Chad Foster, will greatly improve your chances of succeeding in the real world?
   a. ________________________
   b. ________________________
   c. ________________________

3. The one item that successful business people will point to as their key to success is their ________________.

4. One of society’s greatest myths is _________________________________.

5. We all have to deal with _______________________ occasionally.

6. Success = __________________ + __________________

   + ________________.

7. People do business with people ________________________________
   ____________________________, and _____________________________.

8. Nobody succeeds without ________________.
Short Answer
9. What was one piece of advice that Chad Foster took from his parents?
   Fill your _______________ with names, ________________, and _______________ of everyone you meet.
10. It’s important for young people to meet as many people as they can and stay ________________.
11. You should not be afraid of ________________.

“You Just Never Know” p.23 - 26
1. What earns a young person respect any time he does it?

2. What is the difference between relationships and connections?
   Relationships =
   Connections =

3. Which of the above is better to have for your future?

4. What should you forget while you are meeting people?
   a.
   b.

5. Why is it important to keep in touch with the people you meet?
   ________________.

6. What is the key that unlocks the door to success?

“Mr. X and Mr. President” p.27 - 30
1. You are never _________________ to start making contacts.
2. As you build your ____________________ with communication, ____________________ and ____________________.

3. You can never stay in touch with ____________________.

_Teenagers Preparing for the Real World 5-10 p.39 - 60_

_“What Do You Know – Out of the Ordinary”_

True/False

Indicate whether the sentence or statement is true or false.

___ 1. Chad Foster said that the more people you meet + the more you learn = a guarantee of success.
___ 2. According to Chad Foster, at the ages 13, 15, or 18 a person becomes interesting by studying and earning good grades in school.
___ 3. The secret to becoming well informed is to expand your knowledge on a variety of subjects.
___ 4. Every day that you possibly can, you should spend time reading a good novel.
___ 5. The knowledge that you gain will depend on your ability to ask questions.
___ 6. You should do most everything in moderation, but you should go to the extremes with going to social events to meet people.
___ 7. On average, a person will work 93,000 hours in a lifetime.
___ 8. A lot of people make the mistake of choosing the same career as one of their parents.
___ 9. Money can and should be the result of your work, but money should never be the reason for your work.
___ 10. Some estimates say the 82 percent of all workers are dissatisfied with their jobs.
___ 11. The average worker changes careers three to four times before retirement.
___ 12. It’s important to have a career that uses your natural talents.
___ 13. Money is good for two things: 1) to ensure your happiness, and 2) to help the less fortunate.
___ 14. Aptitudes are defined as natural talents and special abilities for doing, or learning to do, certain kinds of things easily and quickly.
___ 15. Based on Chad Foster’s aptitude tests, the guys who administered the test were dead wrong.
___ 16. The more time you have to think, the better your chances are of making the right choice.
___ 17. Someone should write a book that teaches adults how to talk to young people.
___ 18. Live for today, and live for tomorrow.
___ 19. You don’t need to pick a career while you’re still in school, but it is a good idea to test-drive a few.
___ 20. Webster’s dictionary defines an intern as “a student who is getting paid experience under the guidance of an experienced worker.”
___ 21. Most people are clueless.
22. You should start your sneak peaks long before college.

23. Commit a few days each summer to checking out jobs.

24. There are around 50,000 jobs to be had.

25. Chad Foster met David Brantley while doing an internship at the age of 17.

26. You’ll need a little something extra to get your foot in the door and to open the window of opportunity. Your contacts will be that something extra.

27. High school students who work part-time usually make more money later in life than students who don’t work during school.

28. High school seniors who work 20 hours per week are expected to earn 40 percent more after college or university than those students who don’t work during high school.

29. On average, students who work up to 20 hours per week actually have better grades than those who don’t work at all.

30. Don’t ever think flipping burgers or making fries is a dead-end job.

Teenagers Preparing for the Real World 11-16 (p.63-87)
“Dream On – Looking Ahead”

Completion

Complete each sentence or statement.

1. All ____________________ and all __________________________ start as dreams.

2. The most famous dream ever had was that of __________________________ in ________.

3. His dream was that ____________________ and __________________ would learn to __________________________ in peace.

4. ____________________ was killed by an assassin in ________.

5. ____________________ and __________________________ are some of the most serious problems we face in America today.

6. Make sure you treat everyone you meet like __________________________.

7. The success of your generation depends on __________________________.

8. __________________ is the founder of Wal-Mart.

9. Even if your ultimate dream does not come true, as you pursue your dreams __________________________

10. The guy who invented the ____________________ owns his own island.

11. ____________________ invented the light bulb.

12. If you like ____________________ - if you like ____________________ - life is great.
13. Someone brilliant once said, “It is far better to ___________________________ than to never have ___________________________ at all.”

14. A ___________________________’s dream is as good as anyone’s.

15. ___________________________ is all about ___________________________.

16. ___________________________ are a part of growing up, and they’re okay as long as you learn from them.

17. You’ll never ___________________________ yourself, and you have to ___________________________ for the rest of your life.

18. Chad Foster ___________________________ convinced himself that there were some choices that were “kind of right and sort of wrong.”

19. ___________________________ is wrong and ___________________________ is right.

20. Wrong choices don’t become right just because ___________________________.

21. ___________________________ is all about doing ___________________________.

22. ___________________________ are a part of life, and they are not ___________________________.

23. We all learn ___________________________.

24. “In order to deal with your worst days and your biggest problems, you need to do two things. First, ___________________________ and remember that no matter what your problem is, it could always be ___________________________. [Second] Next time you are having a really rotten day, stop and think about someone ___________________________. Think about someone who ___________________________.

25. Everyone has ___________________________ to act on that awareness, including ____________.

26. Make ___________________________ a priority in your life.

27. ___________________________ is valuable.

28. The more prepared you are for your first chances, the ___________________________.
